IMD INTERNATIONAL SEARCH GROUP ADDS PARTNER IN HUNGARY

Zurich, Switzerland (January, 10, 2016) – IMD International Search Partners are pleased to announce that Telkes Consulting have joined the organization as of January of this year.

Telkes Consulting is a pioneer in executive search on their market, as it was among the first executive search firms established as early as 1991. International know-how and a deep understanding of the Hungarian labour market, combined with the consultants' international approach and excellent language skills proved to be a competitive advantage during this era.

The company then developed and managed to go through all economic hardships thanks to its business standards and faithful clients. Managing Director Zsolt Lukács and his team operate in a variety of industries, including a special expertise in financial services, media or automotive sectors.

Zsolt was previously a dedicated member of IMD for almost 15 years and had to withdraw for a couple of years as the economic crisis hit Hungary hard. Zsolt was a Director at the IMD Board for several years and was always a volunteer to be involved in IMD actions.

"Having again an office in Hungary marks a symbol of the willingness of IMD to develop in Eastern Europe after years of difficult economic times in the region", underlines Daniel Lewczuk, IMD Director, EMEA Region and CEO of Executive Network in Poland. "We are now in contacts with other potential IMD members in Central and Eastern Europe and hope to welcome there additional IMD members this year".

Dr. Matthias Mohr, IMD President and Managing Partner of Dr. Heimeier & Partner in Germany, salutes the return of Telkes Consulting: "We are glad to resume our partnership with Telkes Consulting: This whole story proves that Zsolt and his team are true professionals recognized on their market, which allowed them to go through the worst of the crisis".
