IMD INTERNATIONAL SEARCH GROUP PARTNERS MEET IN MONTERREY, MEXICO

Zurich, Switzerland (October 31, 2016) – IMD International Search Group Partners gathered from October 13 to 15, 2016 in Monterrey, Mexico, for their semiannual meeting, hosted by Alder Koten.

Founded in 2011, an IMD member since 2014, and a member of the AESC, Alder Koten is present in Mexico (Mexico City, Monterrey, Guadalajara) and the USA (Houston, Dallas). The firm covers a large number of practices: Industrial business (aerospace, automotive, construction, energy, equipment manufacturing, transportations, mining,) as well as Consumer, Financial Services, Life Sciences and Technology sectors, across all functional practices.

The meeting gathered IMD members from the Americas, Western and Eastern Europe, Australia, as well as a guest from China.

Getting a better knowledge of our five new members coming for the first time, exploring business opportunities, exchanging on best practices, the agenda was packed with networking sessions in one large group, smaller workshops, or bilateral exchanges.

Present members notably committed to create a number of focus groups on specific sector or functional practices, such as CIOs and CFOs, Transports, Energy, Environment, etc. to develop cooperation globally.

The group went further in the reflection on leadership with interesting initiatives on "Secure Base" leadership training programs from the Netherlands or Positive Leadership consulting from Australia.

Finally, our guest from Shanghai led the audience into receiving very interesting insights on the unique cultural aspects of the Chinese business market.

"Wonderfully organized by the Alder Koten team, this meeting was exciting as we had a renewed energy with incoming members and everyone bringing in a project or initiative" comments Dr. Matthias Mohr, IMD President and Managing Partner of Dr. Heimeier & Partner in Germany. "I think our organization is on a very positive trend and we have much to do between now and our next meeting in Oslo in April 2017".
