IMD INTERNATIONAL SEARCH GROUP INTRODUCES NEW PARTNER IN SPAIN

Zurich, Switzerland (September 12, 2023) – IMD International Search Partners are pleased to announce that Padula & Partners, with offices in Madrid, Spain, have joined the organization as of this year.

Padula & Partners has quite a long track record in executive search on the Spanish market as it was founded in 2005. They have since then provided bespoke service to clients in a vast range of sectors including Life Science (pharmaceutical, medical devices), Real Estate, Industrial (notably engineering and automotive), Technology (IT, telecommunications), Consumer goods and services (food and beverages, distribution), Consulting and Media.

Executive search is at the core of their expertise, yet they also developed overtime additional services such as Leadership programs (Training, Development, and Consulting), Executive Coaching, DEI (diversity, equity, and inclusion) as well as consulting in political leadership, public affairs and government relations.

This combined set of competencies, along with the excellent contacts and previous opportunities of cooperation have from the start persuaded IMD that Euprepio Padula and his team were the perfect match with IMD members.

We trust this new partnership will be highly fruitful on both sides and look forward to our collaboration.
